

I Come (A Song of Spiritual Renaissance)

© 1996 I AM Unlimited Publishing/ASCAP

Written by: S.L. "Raja" Crumby

Verse 1:

From the dawning of all time I've known your fears, and heard the rumbling of the questions in your mind. Yet through the constant movement of two thousand years, it seems your consciousness remains frozen in time. I came forth to show you your reflection; for I'm everything that you are meant to be. Know ye not that unto you is to be given the very power that was given unto me.

Chorus:

For I come that you might have life. I come to put an end to strife. And I come that you might be free to fulfill your destiny.

Verse 2:

The father's pleasure is to give to you the kingdom. And deep within your heart you'll find the key to release unto the world the only power to mend the broken heart and make the captive free. But your fear, separation and divisions have always kept you from receiving as the son. Lend your ear to the guidance of the spirit, lift the veil and you'll discover that we're one.

Chorus:

For I come that you might have life, I come to put an end to strife. And I come that you might be free to embrace your divinity.

Verse 3:

And if your heart can find a way to love all others without judgment, your religions could be surely set aside.

Background: Find a way to cast fear aside.

For, through the power of love I've shown you how to transcend all the limits of your doctrines, your philosophies and pride. And of the wars you wage in my name, I say "Father, please forgive them, (Father, lay it not to their charge) for surely they must not know what they do; for, if they knew of my compassion, they would have the understanding that they crucify the Son of Man anew.

I did not then nor now do I seek glory. It's a myth that you should worship me. The time has come to rectify the story, for I came to set your spirit free!

Chorus:

I come that you might have life. I come to put an end to strife. And I come that you might be free to live eternally. And if there be any glory, may it be to the Father/Mother; to the Alpha and Omega of us all.

Children:

And you said you'd come again!

Response:

I'm with you now. Tell me, can you see me in the faces of the children, in the eyes of your enemy, your friend?

Produced by: Raja

Lead Vocals: Raja

Background Vocals Arranged by: Raja and Marcenia LaFleur

Background Vocals: I AM U featuring: Darrell McGhee, Stephanie Johnson-Bey, Bernadette Hunter, Malika Tabia, Vilaya Roberts, Marcenia LaFleur and Raja

Children: Jamia and Jamaal Autry and Sigourne, Natkeya, P'Colya and Amanda Crumby

Music Composed by: Peter Moore and Raja

Keyboards: Peter Moore and Ricky Johnson

Bass Guitar: Peter Moore

Horns Arranged by: Peter Moore and Raja

Strings Arranged by: Peter Moore and Raja

Drums: Peter Moore and Raja

Percussion: Peter Moore

Recording Engineers: Peter Moore, Ruiari Kilcullen and Raja

Moore Engineers: Ruiari Kilcullen and Raja

Recorded: Atlanta, GA USA