We’re living in an auspicious time; a time when our urge for self-knowing and spiritual enrichment is generating a tremendous response from the universe. While the last two thousand years have been marked by a consensus in consciousness that the Bible and other religious texts have provided all that spiritual hierarchy would say to us, our desire to understand our origins and be motivated by divine purpose has open us to receiving incredibly liberating information from within ourselves. These are indeed the days of which it was spoken, “I will pour out of my spirit upon all flesh,” the time of the unfolding of the Christ consciousness potential within each of us.

Heeding the call and moving to the forefront of receptivity are those souls committed to being channels of messages for planetary change. You will know these messages when you hear them, for they contain the energy to incite revolutionary impulses that invoke recall at a cellular, soul level. They speak directly to this age of personal transformation and God/self empowerment. For the time has come to be transformed by the renewing of our minds.

Having heard the call and giving heed, I received, from the truth of my being, this message to call every soul on the planet into remembrance of your highest calling.
