Intro: I envision humanity as one, but, from time to time, my vision gets obscured; so much so that I woke up this morning with tears in my eyes, undaunted by the notion that a man ain't supposed to cry. Spent all day searching for why am I here living in a world of shadows, compromise and fear. And, then I heard a voice say "Get up, rise, the world's evolving, your destiny is calling, you chose this time to rise. Embrace your spirit, no denying you can hear it, it's calling you to rise.

Chorus: Rise, the world's evolving, your destiny is calling, you chose this time to rise. Embrace your spirit, no denying you can hear it, it's calling you to rise.

Verse: Have you ever really wondered about your destiny, why you're here on the planet, how you've come to be? Well, let me help you understand that there's a divine plan. The things I'm gonna say should come as no surprise, if you're looking at your life through supernatural eyes, and if you're not, then rise. Before we put on a body as a living soul, we agreed to play a part to help the plan unfold, but fear and negativity have kept us in a bind, we're lagging way behind. And nobody's coming around to save us. We've got to use what the creator's gave us. So, open up your heart, unwrap the gift to help you make the cosmic shift, and rise.

Chorus: Rise, the world's evolving, your destiny is calling, you chose this time to rise. Embrace your spirit, no denying you can hear it, it's calling you to rise.

Verse 2: We came to manifest divine intention to make the leap into the fifth dimension to demonstrate how life can be in love and peace and harmony. But we've allowed our egos to define us, now hatred, politics and war divide us. With our lower nature at the helm we're bound to lower realms. Where there are enemies of life all around us, always searching for a fool and they found us. Thinking we're so sophisticated, don't you know we're like a planetary Jerry Springer show? Too immature to settle things between us, so we allow the system to demean us by telling us what we have to do. Why can't we all just be true and rise?

Bridge: There'll be no opportunity to make enemies of you and me, if we rise. We can break the bonds of fear, racial hatred war and poverty, if we rise. We'll restore the dignity, heart and soul of all humanity, if we rise. We'll become the guiding lights of the world that we are meant to be.

Chorus: Rise, the world's evolving, your destiny is calling, you chose this time to rise. Embrace your spirit, no denying you can hear it, it's calling you to rise.

Verse 3: We've got to rise above the propaganda to catch the vision of the soul's agenda; to understand that in reality, the truth has been withheld from you and me.

See, there are those who play us like our life's a game, playing tricks with our psyche just to measure the pain; spreading lies and propaganda and they won't quit, well let me tell you I for one don't want to hear that.

Raja: The only chance that we have to be free, is to heal our mind and emotions of fear and negativity.

BG: Tell me do you want to be free?
You gotta rise above the negativity, doo wah, doo wah.

Raja: The forces that bind us will lose their control when divine government from within unfolds, so tell me:

Bridge: Will you open up your heart, move beyond the fear and compromise?
You'll see a world awaiting there, just beyond the veil that shields our eyes.

Chorus: Rise, the world's evolving, your destiny is calling, you chose this time to rise.
Embrace your spirit, no denying you can hear it, it's calling you to rise.

Raja: Be determined to grasp the power of your life's auspicious moments to speak to your deepest discontent and fears.

BG: You chose this time to rise!

Raja: Clear a space, create a listening for the best, truest and highest part of you and heed its call to rise.

BG: It's calling you to rise!

Raja: And to everyone who seeks to maintain and reinforce an unrighteous status quo, I've got a message for you.

BG: You chose this time, get up, rise!

Raja: Listen, there are no more pedals on your four-leaf clover, your lower nature's reign is over; your spirit's calling!

BG: It's calling you to rise!

Raja: What you gonna do?
